

Notice of Privacy Practices

Protecting your confidential health information is important to us. It is our desire that you understand that the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) was written to protect the confidentiality of your health information and that we are committed to ensuring that your health information will not be shared with anyone who does not require it.

- We will use your health information only for purposes of providing diagnosis and treatment.
- We may share your health information with physicians, referring specialists or any other healthcare professional only with your permission.

These communications are an important part of our philosophy of partnering with our patients to be sure that you receive the best information and support that we can provide. Other than what is stated above or where Federal, State, or local law requires, we will not disclose your health information without your written authorization. You may revoke authorization in writing at any time. You have the right to obtain a copy of this notice from us at any time.
